ISABEL HANLON

Wife of Paul Hanlon, Isabel is a mild-mannered, patient woman who enjoys hosting events and organizing gatherings with the couples' friends. As a professional make-up artist for movies, Isabel travels a lot for her work, and loves to experience new places. She is a fantastic skier, and her moves on the slopes put all others to shame!

FLORENCE MCCUMBER

Fun, vivacious and always up for a good time, Florence McCumber is always having a good time. A long-time friend of many at the chalet, Florence has an infectious laugh, and makes it her mission to ensure everyone is having a great time no matter the situation. Her sense of humour and ability to take life lightly helps her in her profession as a teacher, and she is always keen to share stories of the absurd things that take place in her classroom. Florence is the guest everyone wants to have around – and together with her husband, Kai, the pair is always the life of the party.

CARLY BRAY

Quiet and mild-mannered, Carly tends to be the serious one of the group. While she is no stranger to having a good time, while others are laughing hysterically, she manages a mild chuckle. Carly has a soft voice and a knowing smile, and has often been referred to as the most mysterious of the group.

MARIE DORSAY

One half of the on-site staff, Marie Dorsay and her partner, Henrick, are in the chalet to cook, clean and take care of both the chalet and the visitors within. Marie herself is young and capable, but very no-nonsense and while she is not rude, she does not engage in pleasantries with the guests. Marie stays in the small staff quarters at the back of the chalet with Henrick.

SANDY LEMON

Wife of Tim Lemon, Sandy has come to The Alps on an invitation from Kai McCumber, who works with Tim. She doesn't know many people in attendance, but those she has spoken with find her slightly introverted and not very forthcoming about herself. Sandy is quiet but perceptive – she doesn't miss a detail and remembers things in pictures with a potent photographic memory. Sandy has never skied before, and sees to prefer shopping in the village over hitting the slopes.

NATALYA HALL

Classically beautiful, Natalya Hall is a isomerism-in-training, and is at the chalet to assist Darcy Drake, the man from whom she is learning the art. While still learning, Natalya already exudes elegance and class – and an intimate knowledge of fine wine. Natalya is pleasant and polite, but also has an air of mystery about her that adds to her already-intriguing qualities.

MRS. VALENTINO

One of the regular caretakers of the chalet, Mrs. Valentino takes her job of caring for the chalet and the guests who stay within very seriously. Along with her husband, Mrs. Valentino keeps the chalet in good shape for the guests, and also does most of the cooking, unless the guests hire a private chef. Mrs. Valentino is cordial but stern, and is not usually overly-friendly with the guests.

PAUL HANLON

Husband of Isabel Hanlon, Paul is an all-around nice guy, and the 'perfect husband'. A family man, Paul has had a steady corporate job for years, and enjoys a long vacation each year. An avid traveler, Paul was happy to find Isabel, and together they travel as much as possible. Paul is also a fantastic cook, and a handyman at heart, having recently renovated the couple's house himself.

KAI MCCUMBER

Husband of Florence McCumber, Kai is an avid skier, and hits the slopes as often as he can. This is his fifth trip to the Alps, and he claims that skiing anywhere else in the world is now just a disappointment. Kai likes to enjoy the finer things in life, and is the person to go to for wine recommendations – no matter where in the world you plan to drink it! Kai is suave and charismatic; someone others simply love to be around.

RUDY FLYNN

Single man Rudy Flynn is quite possibly the nicest person you will ever meet. He greets everyone he encounters with a broad smile and welcomes them as a friend. No matter the tone of the day or situation, Rudy always has a positive word to say, and enjoys being around other positive people. Rudy loves music, and among his musical talents, he plays his guitar whenever he can, and loves to lead a sing-song around the fire whenever the situation calls for it.

HENRICK DORSAY

Along with his partner, Marie Dorsay, Henrick takes care of the chalet and those visiting by cooking, cleaning and serving visitors as needed. Henrick is congenial but not overly friendly, and maintains an air of professionalism at all times. Henrick is serious and a bit mysterious, and can enter a room without anyone realizing he is there until he speaks.

TIM LEMON

Husband of Sandy Lemon, Tim works with Kai McCumber, which is how he earned an invitation on this trip to The Alps. Not an avid skier, Tim tries his best but is a bit shaky on his skis and has trouble keeping up with the others, but his easy-going nature keeps him laughing every time he takes a face full of snow. Tim is fun and funny, and has quickly made friends with those he did not know in the group.

DARCY DRAKE

A stranger to most at the chalet. Darcy is quiet and polite, handsome and confident. A sommelier, Darcy is at the chalet with his assistant, Natalya Hall, to give the guest an intimate wine experience as they enjoy their evening. The pair arrived earlier this afternoon, and will return to the village before the evening is through.

MR. VALENTINO

Mr. Valentino makes up half of the usual chalet care-taking team. Along with his wife, Mr. Valentino takes care of the chalet and keeps it in good running order, and helps the guests as they need it. He has often expressed that he does not know what would happen to the chalet without him around to take care of everything. While Mr. Valentino does act put-upon, he does enjoy meeting all the new guests to stay at the chalet, and he loves his job.
