

THE SUSPECTS

scarlette christie

Scarlette is a creative, hard-working business owner. As one of the highest-rated interior designers in the city where she lives, her reputation means everything to her. She started her business with just one employee – her – and now, she has a team of over fifty people working for her. While she has come to the island after receiving the strange invitation, she would clearly rather be back in the city designing magazine-worthy living rooms than spending the weekend in the place she has worked all these years to forget.

vicki broadwater

There aren't many people who don't know Vicki Broadwater. This Hollywood star has been at the top of all casting directors' Most Wanted lists since her breakout role five years ago in a screen adaptation of a best-selling teen book series. Since, Vicki has been in the spotlight. She recently divorced her high school boyfriend, Caleb, quite suddenly and without explanation – something with which the tabloids had a field day! Vicki is a true actress, and loves to put on a show for the cameras and social media.

dana knox

Dana moved across the country shortly after graduation and has never looked back. While technically she owns Enmity Island and the Knox House, she claims she never returned, and had planned to never step foot on this 'wretched rock' ever again. Her late parents left Enmity Island and the house on it to her though, and she has had it on the market since. Without any interest at all, even this no-nonsense woman insists the house, perhaps the land, is cursed. Dana was reluctant to return – so why did she?

faith price

A mortgage broker in Marc Iles' office, Faith is young – in her mid-twenties – and eager to learn about the industry and get her career going. It's hard not to like Faith Price, because her enthusiasm for meeting everyone, being on the island for the weekend and seeing the house is infectious, and before people started dying, those who met Faith were actually having a good time getting to know her.

janelle jaymes

New girlfriend of Caleb Doyle, Janelle is an up-and-coming actress. The two have been dating for a few months, and while most people find Janelle a bit vapid and desperate for attention, she and Caleb seem happy together. Janelle is rarely out of touch with her followers on social media, and ability to take a fantastic selfie, even in this dim mansion, is unrivaled.

alisa knox

Cousin of Dana Knox, Alisa Knox grew up with Dana and the two were always close. Being the same age, they hung out in high school, even though Alisa didn't go to school with her cousin. Alisa is fun-loving and always up for a party; even after all these years and what happened on Enmity Island ten years ago, she didn't bat an eye when she received her mysterious invitation. Alisa thought the return to Enmity Island sounded like a fun adventure, and has a very laid-back reaction to everything that has happened on the island already.

Pauline reach

A bit of a mystery on Enmity Island, Pauline isn't known to the group, but has arrived on the boat packing a number of bags. While most here keep to themselves, she is even more guarded than the others, and is not quick to give up any information about herself. Pauline is very serious and focused and was very quick to claim her room on the second floor of the mansion.

Caleb doyle

Pseudo-celebrity Caleb Doyle earned his celebrity status because of his marriage to Vicki Broadwater - a marriage that has now come to an end. As half of one of Hollywood's "it" couples, Caleb watched his reputation be smeared as the media speculated as to the reasons for their divorce. A year has passed since, this egomaniacal man has made a career for himself out of thin air, being paid to show up at parties and for media appearances, all on the coat tails of his failed marriage to his high school sweetheart-turned famed actress, Vicki Broadwater. Caleb is sharp-tongued and convinced of his own entitlement, and always seems to have a dark plot brewing behind his shifty eyes.

Marc îles

Husband of Dana Knox, Marc is a realtor and has offered his services to help his wife of two years sell the island and the house on it. Since Dana has had no interest so far, Marc has offered to take the reins on the sale and, with any luck, help her get rid of the island once and for all. A calm and composed man, Marc exudes confidence, which has made him one of the top salesmen in the city in which they live. When Dana received the strange invitation, Marc offered to come with her for moral support, and to hopefully get some pictures of the island and house for the listing.

neil michaels

Neil Michaels is a stranger to all here but Marc Iles. A client of Marc's, Neil is interested in purchasing Enmity Island and the Knox House. They had planned to come out for a viewing anyhow, so Neil tagged along with his realtor to see the island, the house and decide whether he wanted to move forward with the purchase of Enmity Island. Neil is affable, and while he doesn't know anyone here, his outgoing personality means he doesn't feel out of place.

tristan hawk

Tristan is an agent to the stars, and is currently representing Janelle Jaymes. Tristan is in high demand and only takes on a few clients at a time, but his reputation is well-earned. Every client he has ever represented has made it big in Hollywood, and he is called "The Star Maker". He is very choosy about the actors he takes on, so just having been accepted by Tristan ensures Janelle's success. As they are building her as a "brand", Tristan stays close to his newest starlet, and has accompanied Janelle to the island this weekend to get promotional material for her social media. After all, Janelle's weekend at a haunted island will certainly get her attention on social, and attention means followers, publicity and contracts.
