

The Suspects

Makala Wahini

Detective Wahini is one of Hawaii's finest detectives, but her investigative skills are second only to her uncanny ability to intuit her reckless partner, Halia Okole's every move. She has saved Halia's life no less than thirty six times, a debt she won't let Halia forget when their bar tab arrives. Makala is vivacious, independent and strong, is a crack shot and has a mean right hook.

Ha'iku Mahalulu

Ha'iku is an entrepreneur, and co-owner in a luau dancer doll stand, which attracts tourists from all over the islands because of their renowned selection of dancing dolls, typically displayed on tourists' dashboards upon their return home. Ha'iku is friendly and enthusiastic, and is well-known all over the islands for her happy disposition.

Keiki Kealoha

Keiki is the daughter of one of Oahu's most treasured men. Her family has owned a large piece of stunning beach front property for generations, and vowed to keep it, despite the multi-million dollar offers they received almost weekly from developers. She is passionate about Hawaii and the original Polynesian culture, and is not afraid to stand up for her family and Hawaii when she feels someone is speaking ill of either.

Halia Okole

Halia is one of the islands' most notorious detectives. Her quick-witted sarcasm is second only to her shoot-first-and-ask-questions-later approach to law enforcement, and it seems not a week goes by without Halia ending up in a sticky situation of some sort. Good thing her partner, the vivacious Makala Wahini, is usually not far away, and has made bailing Halia out of dangerous situations her number one priority.

Keanna Keawe

World surfing champion Keanna Keawe is a native of Hawaii, and a celebrated local celebrity. In spite of her surfing fame, she recently retired from competing to start her own business, teaching tourists how to surf. Her business is thriving, partially thanks to her startling good looks and charisma. Naturally, she has a long line of men vying for her affections.

Jackie Haines

Jackie Haines is one of the richest real estate moguls on the island. Her track record is immaculate, and her client list reads like a who's who of celebrities and the world's wealthy. Jackie is a no-nonsense businesswoman who thinks of nothing but the bottom line, a practice responsible for her unbelievable wealth and success.

Apikalia Newalu

Apikalia is the bartender at the Tiki Bar at the Blue Orchid Resort, and has been for two years. Friendly and outgoing, Apikalia is perfectly suited for the job of serving tourists - she is beautiful, friendly and loves to listen to the tourists speak about where they come from and what they do "back home", although the hefty tips she earns from them surely helps with her happy, obliging disposition.

Wikolia Lono

Wikolia Lono is the scariest, most intimidating woman on the island! Wikolia's reputation precedes her, and a simple glare from her can clear a room. Most people on the island are afraid of her; rumour has it that she has used brute force to collect loan repayments owed to her equally-intimidating brother, Ipo, and some say she has even used deadly force to make people comply with her and her brother's wishes.

Lilo Hookano

Lilo Hookano and her partner, Luana, recently took on the day-to-day running of the Blue Orchid Resort, and Lilo is thriving in her new role as host. She enjoys welcoming new guests each evening to the resort, and showing them the beauty of Hawaii personally. A born hostess, Lilo welcomes guests to the resort in an airy dress and a flower in her hair.

Luana Hookano

Luana Hookano and her partner, Lilo, only recently took over the operations of the Blue Orchid Resort, and are clearly enjoying themselves just as much (if not more) than their guests. Each night they host the guests of the resort in every sense of the word, having dinner each night with a different patron, getting to know each of them personally as they stay at the resort. Luana is graceful and distinguished. Luana wears long, airy, flowing dress, and has a fresh lei made for her each morning, which she wears long into the night, and she is usually seen wearing a hibiscus in her hair.

Kamea Pukahi

Kamea is the headlining act at the Blue Orchid Resort. Her traditional Kahiko style of performance embodies the more traditional Polynesian form of dancing, and while she incorporates the more Western-influenced (Auana) form of hula into her performances, she believes that the ancient form of hula dancing should be the focus of her nightly performances on the Blue Orchid stage. Kamea teaches a halua - a hula class - for tourists on the beach each evening. She is rumoured to be dating a reputed gangster named Ipo Lono. Kamea wears her performance costume, as she was preparing for her performance later this evening.

Leia Mika

Leia is a new addition to the Blue Orchid Resort family. Working as a chambermaid, Leia spends her days changing sheets and scrubbing toilets - not exactly a life of luxury, but it does allow her to spend her days in Hawaii, which she claims is a dream come true. Leia is not a local, and not much is yet known about this mysterious newcomer. Like all of the maids at the Blue Orchid Resort, Leia wears a traditional black and white maid uniform.

Charlotte Peachman

Charlotte is a woman in the prime of her life. Playful and flirtatious, Charlotte returns each year to the Blue Orchid Resort to spend at least six weeks resting and relaxing at the resort. Wealthy and vivacious, Charlotte tips generously and makes friends very easily. With her unique joie de vivre, one would never guess that she is a widow. Charlotte wears a long, flowing dress and an oversized hat and seems to float around from place to place as she takes in all of the luxury the Blue Orchid Resort has to offer.

Stephanie Sanders

A true rags-to-riches story, Stephanie spent her teen years on the streets, and in her twenties, struggled to get on her feet. While she was living in a shelter, she received word that a rich uncle had passed away and she was the sole heir to his fortune. Overnight, Stephanie went from destitute to wealthy beyond her wildest dreams. A down-to-earth young woman, Stephanie has decided to invest her money wisely – but only after experiencing what the other half live like! She is enjoying the Blue Orchid Resort, and while she is still a bit reluctant to spend her money, she is also enjoying having all her dreams come true. Stephanie is sweet and friendly, and excited to meet new people at the resort.
